

Drift # 1:
From Personal Responsibility to Collective Responsibility
Ezekiel 18

What is good or biblical about liberation theology?

1. Upholds God's concern for the _____ and our collective responsibility to help others.
2. Upholds God's concern to be _____ and _____ in this world.

What is harmful about liberation theology?

1. Undermines the _____ of Scripture and elevates the role of experience.
2. Undermines the _____ of Christ as He is presented in Scripture.
3. Undermines the biblical teaching on personal _____ for sin, redemption, work, etc.
4. Undermines the power of the _____ to liberate.
5. Undermines the work of _____.
6. Undermines the biblical teaching on _____ and the consequences of heaven and hell.
7. Seeks to mandate _____.
8. Undermines the biblical teaching on _____ in Christ.
9. Undermines the biblical teaching on _____, sex, gender, etc.
10. Destroys _____ and brings increased division within the body of Christ.

Application

1. Understand the times we're living in and the impact _____ is having within the Church.
2. Take _____ for your own sin.
3. Don't let personal experience, economic background, race, or gender, determine how you _____ to others within the church.
